

BOARD SELF-EVALUATION

This template is not meant is not intended as legal advice. Your organizational goals, purpose and values should drive the creation of this document.

INSTRUCTIONS

Circle the number for each item that most clearly represents your opinion.

Add a few words in the comments section on why you've selected the answer.

		Strongly Disagree						Strongly Agree
1. The board has a strong commitment to the agency's mission. Comments:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
2. The board routinely educates itself about the work of the agency and issues it will face in the future. Comments:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
3. The board agrees on how to judge the agency's success and regularly monitors this. Comments:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
4. All board members, old and new understand their roles and responsibilities.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7

Comments:

5. The board spends its time on the issues that matter most to the agency's success.

Comments:

6. The board works together as a team.

Comments:

7. The board encourages differing points of view and is able to disagree without becoming personal.

Comments:

8. The board has good attendance and members come to meetings prepared to participate.

Comments:

9. The board is composed of sufficient diversity.

Comments:

10. The board has a good relationship with the Executive Director and provides regular evaluation and coaching.

Comments:

